Alan on Mallard Song All Souls.

A nation that is blown off course

Requires a show of Wilberforce.

A Lame Duck here can have no place

The Mallard is a special case

Scamman Report will be available 30 March proof will be corrected by Scamman before showing to either Govt. Police will come out of it fairly well though there will be criticisms. The case of partisanship will be unequivocally rejected.
There is also another important item. Although it was known as early as 2 August 69 that the police could not contain a riot situation if it developed. Wilson & Callaghan told Annette Clark that he could not have troops unless he agreed to suspend Stormont, I asked him what to do now. He replied that we must recognise that the N.I. man was a different species to the Southern Irishman. Participation can only be achieved by abolishing Ministerial system and making Stormont a C&G type organisation. (Oddly enough this is almost totidem verbis what I told Cab last Tue). Law Com: Stennington must be referred. Cassell v Broome positive generally to be referred — Faulks to have p.d. on defamation quant même —

Land Reg: Nathan Opp's letter

There is a rule wh: may help. — but not enough.
