General Background

Churchill College is one of the thirty-one Colleges of the University of Cambridge and was founded in 1958 as the national memorial to Sir Winston Churchill. The Colleges provide a key proportion of student teaching: small group tutorials, known as supervisions, and residential, social and welfare facilities. Every student at Cambridge University must be a member of a College.

The College includes the Churchill Archives Centre which conserves and houses the major Churchill collection, the Thatcher papers and over 500 other important 20th century collections of papers. The College also owns the Møller Centre, situated on the main College site, which offers training and conference facilities and accommodation throughout the year in a purpose-built building provided by the Danish entrepreneur, A P Møller, in 1991.

The College has about 170 Fellows and around 60 By-Fellows, 220 postgraduates working for a higher degree or diploma, and 410 undergraduates working for a first degree. Out of term the College provides accommodation and other facilities for residential and non-residential conferences.

The Churchill Archives Centre
(see https://www.chu.cam.ac.uk/archives/ for more detailed information)

The Churchill Archives Centre was purpose-built in 1973 to house Sir Winston Churchill’s Papers - some 2,500 boxes of letters and documents ranging from his first childhood letters, via his great war-time speeches, to the writings which earned him the Nobel Prize for Literature. They form an incomparable documentary treasure trove.

The Churchill Papers served as the inspiration and the starting-point for a larger endeavour - the creation of a wide-ranging archive of the Churchill era and after, covering those fields of public life in which Sir Winston played a personal role or took a personal interest. Today it holds the papers of some 600 important figures and the number is still increasing.

The Archives Centre is situated within the grounds of Churchill College, itself the National and Commonwealth Memorial to Sir Winston. It includes air-conditioned reading rooms, strong rooms with rigorous security systems, a conservation laboratory and a sorting room.

The Director of the Archives Centre is Allen Packwood. The successful candidate will be joining a team of 13 and will be an employee of Churchill College, Cambridge.

Terms and Conditions of Employment

The position is full-time (37.5 hours per work), or part-time for three or four full days per week (22.5 or 30.0 hours per week, respectively).

This is a one year fixed–term position in the first instance. The salary range on offer is currently between £18,659 and £22,150 per annum (pro rata), depending on experience plus other benefits.

Cost of living awards are negotiated in October annually. In addition, the College provides free parking, social and sporting facilities, a generous pension scheme, five weeks’ paid holiday per annum and flexible working hours as well as a range of other benefits.

Churchill College operates a role evaluation system and all posts are assigned a grade, within an incremental pay-scale made up of annual increments at the bottom of the scale and discretionary increments (accessed through excellence in performance) at the top of the scale. Please note that the salary range quoted above is the full scale for the grade. It is College practice to advertise the whole salary scale for the grade and an appointment will be made at an appropriate point within the band.

The College is an equal opportunities employer.
