

CHURCHILL ARCHIVES CENTRE
CHURCHILL COLLEGE, CAMBRIDGE CB3 0DS
Churchill College in the University of Cambridge is a registered Charity No 1137476

Your History Needs You

The Churchill Archives Centre is a charitable organisation. It receives no direct public funding and relies on the support and generosity of Trusts and individuals. Access for research and education is provided free of charge in the Centre's reading rooms, and there is a strong commitment to free on-line resources. This is only sustainable with your help. Even a small donation can make a vital difference.

The Archives Centre now houses the papers of Sir Winston Churchill, Baroness Thatcher, and many other leading politicians, diplomats, military leaders and scientists of the 'Churchill Era' and beyond, including: The Rt. Hon. Neil Kinnock, Admiral Sir Bertram Ramsay, Field Marshal Lord Slim, Sir Frank Whittle, and Rosalind Franklin. You can help us preserve and increase access to the raw material of history.

Your donation will be paid into a discretionary account for use by the Director of the Archives Centre. This account will be used to help save vulnerable collections, provide specialist equipment and materials, and meet special project costs. It will enable the Archives Centre to realise the true potential of its collections. Please simply complete and return the form on the reverse of this page. Cheques should be made payable to 'Churchill College'. All donations will be acknowledged.

Thank you for your generosity.

Allen Packwood
Director
