

LENT 2025

CHUMS' FRIDAY

APPETISER RECITALS

31st January – 6.15pm

Jazz Karaoke

The Buttery

A small house band, led by Ewan Campbell will play almost any jazz (or other) request that you can dream up. If you consider yourself a closet crooner, this is the event for you! They will perform two sets before and after formal dinner.

7th February – 6.15pm

Chamber Choir

Recital Room

Choral Scholars of the Inter Alios Chamber Choir perform a short concert, featuring a range of upper voice choral repertoire and some smaller chamber works.

14th February – 6.15pm

New Music Concert

Recital Room

This concert will feature new music by Cambridge student composers past and present, including works for harpsichord performed by visiting Fellow David Chung

21st February – 6.15pm

Chu Jazz & Open Mic

Buttery

ChuJazz are back with a new set of Big Band classics. Then, stay in the Buttery for the Open Mic night. Turn up on the night or contact the Music Sizar in advance to sign up.

28th February – 6.15pm

Tara Spencer

Recital Room

First year Music Award holder Tara will perform a programme of music for violin and piano, which will include the Brahms 3rd violin sonata.

7th March – 6.15pm

Orchestra on The Hill

The Chapel

The orchestra is jointly hosted by Churchill, Fitzwilliam and Murray Edwards Colleges, and this term will be making the digital analogue in a programme of orchestral music from well-known computer games.

14th March – 6.15pm

Lizzie Nunn & Open Stage

The Buttery

First year music student Lizzie Nunn will present a programme of tango music for violin and piano. There will also be room in this programme other members of college wishing to present a short performance. To signup please contact the Music Sizar via email or by the @chumusicsoc Instagram page.

All events are free and open to all.

Facebook: @Churchill College Music Society

Instagram: @churchillmusicsoc